

Buckhorn Farm is pleased to offer clinics with Pati Pierucci. Based in Virginia, she is usually available for one day or a day and a half, so riding slots are available either singly or as a pair. Usually we will work in the standard arena, but if the afternoon hours prove too hot, we will have use of our covered arena. If you are not familiar with Pati, you may visit her website for more details, (http://www.pieruccidressage.com/?page_id=326) but I have listed a few of her accomplishments below. As you can see, she has a world of experience and has trained with some of the absolute best. She is quite good at working on the rider's position to solve training issues. So come join us! Lessons are 115.00, spots reserved with check, ride time preferences accorded as first come-first served.
